1) According to the revised rules of recruitment governing the Subordinate Services of Government, recently issued, the vacancy is not the unit but the recruit is the unit and when once he is appointed he will be treated as a Probationer and continued in subsequent acting vacancies till he is confirmed; and there is no ~~demarcation between~~ Separate treatment for ministerial and executive services.

2) At present there is ~~a~~ no uniformity in the preparation of C.Statements. The statement with reference to men actually holding posts i.e., men actually working for a period of not less than 3 months is prepared for the half year ending 31st December. A statement with reference to men having permanent lien is prepared for the half year ending ~~xxx~~ 30th June. This does not help it ~~prevents~~ court or check of figures with the previous statement, also involves the preparation of both the statements (viz., "L" statement with reference to men having permanent lien and "G" statement with reference to men actually holding post for both the half years - one for being furnished to the G.R.B. during the particular half year and the other ---- merely for the purpose of furnishing figures of the previous half year in the statement to be furnished to the G.R.B. during the next half year. This difficulty has been pointed out by the Director of Public Instruction and certain other unit officers.

(1) The "C" statement of men having permanent lien now being sent for the half ~~the half~~ year ending June ~~which~~ would seem unnecessary in view of the revised rules and may be discontinued, Annexure 2 in M.

(2) The "C" statement of persons actually holding posts (~~two~~ separately for ministerial and executive as at present) which is now being sent for the half year ending December may be required to be sent for ~~both~~ each half year. Annexure 1 in M

(3) In the ~~new~~ statement of non-gazetted appointments to be furnished for the year ending June both ministerial and executive services may ~~be continued.~~ however be continued (for purposes of general information & reference, in this office). Annexure 3 in M.

(4) The schedule of establishment which is now required to be furnished for the year ending June ~~may be discontinued~~ may also continue, as there might be greater occasion for reference to it, in connection with the New Rules. Annexure 4 in M

(5) Review on the recruitment of various communities for the year ending 30th June every year may ~~be discontinued~~ also continue as it would, if properly drawn up, help us in the checking & Scrutiny of the "C" statements & accounting & explaining for any large variations or decrease in the number of non-brahmins when compared with that of previous half year ~~which are being scrutinised and whenever there~~.
